

THE FUTURE OF ASIAN STUDIES

A Symposium at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey | October 25 and 26, 2018
Alexander Library, Pane Room (169 College Avenue, New Brunswick, NJ)

Day 1: October 25, 2018 | 4:00 PM - 6:30 PM

GENDER, SEXUALITY, AND REGION

- 4:00 PM Welcoming Remarks
Michelle Stephens Dean of Humanities, SAS, Rutgers University
- 4:15 PM Introductory Remarks
Chie Ikeya Rutgers University
- 4:30 PM Geography Ethics History
Tani Barlow Rice University
- 5:00 PM In the Mood for Texture: Gender in Hong Kong, Bangkok, and Shanghai's Urban and Media Revivals of "Chinese Colonial Modernity"
Arnika Fuhrmann Cornell University
- 5:30 PM Queer Regions
Gayatri Gopinath New York University
- 6:00 PM Q&A

Organizers: Chie Ikeya (chie.ikeya@rutgers.edu) | Suzy Kim (suzykim@rutgers.edu)

Sponsors: Global Asias Initiative; Rutgers Global; Departments of American Studies, Asian Languages and Cultures, History, and Religion, and South Asian Studies Program, School of Arts and Sciences; Office of the Executive Vice Dean, School of Arts and Sciences; and Rutgers University Libraries

RUTGERS
THE STATE UNIVERSITY
OF NEW JERSEY